After gaining the 5k tokens needed, I clicked the + to purchase the T2 locker blueprint, waited for the rocket to return, but can't find it in the blueprints screen.

You can see all the items you can make and their unlock requirements on the Biomass page of the Blueprints screen. However, even if an item's locked, you should still be able to stow it in ...

Loving this game, haven't been able to stop playing since I picked it up a week ago on the summer sale. With T3 miners unlocked, been wanting to send my excess materials into trading, but I realized you ...

It would be much better if you could upgrade the Storage Locker to Storage Locker T2 without having to move stored items and without having to redo your drone configurations for each ...

So I've had this happen a few times now and at first thought maybe I was wrong but items are disappearing from my storage lockers. The most common item seems to be the rocket engines but ...

The Spacesuits Locker is a special container found in ordinary wrecks, not in procedural ones. It looks more or less like a standard locker, but is marked with a spacesuit and three hangers.

Bought the T2 locker, and the T2 drones. If I'd asked earlier, or had a better memory, I would have gotten the 3x3, but I'd already built out with the 2x2's, and it'd be a big empty space at ...

To deconstruct an object in The Planet Crafter, you must first find a Deconstruction microchip for your multitool. This can be built in a tier-two Craft Station with one Silicon and one...

You should have put them into a crate or locker. Or even better, take them and put away something less valuable.

Can the Planet Reboot Locker be decomposed

I tried Q but the new locker isn't there. It took a long time to get to 5000 tokens and they're just gone.
