What are crystalline silicon photovoltaic modules?

Crystalline silicon photovoltaic modules: We offer low iron float glass products with high solar transmission in a range of thicknesses for use as cover plates in crystalline silicon photovoltaic modules. These products can be combined with our anti-reflection (AR) coating technology to increase solar transmission further.

What are the characteristics of crystalline silicon photovoltaics?

Characteristics of crystalline silicon photovoltaics: Crystalline silicon photovoltaics is the most widely used photovoltaic technology. Crystalline silicon photovoltaics are modules built using crystalline silicon solar cells (c-Si).

What type of glass is used for solar panels?

Crystalline silicon solar cells are connected together and then laminated under toughened or heat strengthened, high transmittance glass to produce reliable, weather resistant photovoltaic modules. The glass type that can be used for this technology is a low iron float glass such as Pilkington Optiwhite(TM).

What is a flat-plate solar thermal collector?

Flat-plate solar thermal collectors consist of an insulated box which contains a dark absorber plate under a glass cover that hermetically seals the system while maximizing the energy input. The glass cover plate will transmit the sunlight while protecting the system from harsh weather.
