When a company advertises "free solar panels," it typically means that you won't pay anything upfront for the installation. However, these offers usually involve a solar lease or power ...

Free solar isn't free, but it can still be smart for some people. If you want simple, don't have cash upfront, or can't use tax breaks, leases and PPAs give you access to solar power.

The Department of Energy is aware of claims of offers for free solar panels or that solar companies must provide solar panels for free if requested. However, the federal government does ...

Looking to have solar panels installed on your home for free? Learn how federal, state, and local incentives can pay for all or most of the installation cost.

Are "free" solar panels really free? Except for very rare cases, it's unlikely that you'll be able to install solar panels at no cost whatsoever or that the government is "giving them away."

The short answer is that while no company gives away solar panels to own for free, there are absolutely ways to get a system installed on your roof with $0 out of pocket.

There's no such thing as free solar panels or free government solar programs. Most "free" offers are actually leases, power purchase agreements, loans or scams.
